We are delighted to offer for sale for only the second time since construction, this individual detached family house which is set in an elevated location with a pleasant outlook from each room. The property has pleasing spar dashed elevations with stone detailing at the front and is set under a twin pitched roof that has a wholly owned solar panel system (with feed in tariff) on the South facing areas.

This property is packed with plenty of features to delight any new owners offering mahogany finish UPVC double glazed windows and doors (new front and side doors, two sets of French doors in the lounge/dining room and soffits and fascias installed in 2021, hard wearing wood finish flooring installed in 2019 and a selection of custom made vertical and venetian blinds.

The spacious accommodation includes on the ground floor, an entrance hall, kitchen/breakfast room, master bedroom with en-suite shower room, cloakroom/wc, a galleried rear hall and a generous lounge/dining room which runs across the back of the property enjoying views and overlooking the garden. The first floor offers two further double bedrooms, a galleried landing and a family bathroom/wc combined. Outside the house you will find ample driveway parking, an integral garage, attached car port and easily maintained front gardens. At the rear of the house there are South and West facing gardens with paved patio, lawn and well stocked rockery surrounds.

The house is situated on a down hill walk to local amenities on Church Road then onto the town itself which offers a good range of local amenities plus a branch line railway station and a further walk to Penryn Junior School and Sports College and Falmouth University (Tremough Campus). The bustling neighbouring town of Falmouth has a more comprehensive range of business and leisure facilities and that is within a couple of miles drive or via a regular bus service close by.

As our client's sole agents, we thoroughly recommend an immediate viewing to secure this fine property.
