Kimberley's are delighted to present this contemporary two double bedroom apartment set in a tucked-away position yet conveniently close to Falmouth town centre.

The apartment is located within an attractive and well-maintained development and is tucked away behind Fountain Court, located between Smithick Hill and Market Street. The setting offers the perfect balance, just moments from the town's vibrant main shopping thoroughfare, yet enjoying a quieter and more private position.

Falmouth town centre offers an attractive mix of independent shops and well-known high street retailers, together with a wide selection of restaurants, traditional public houses and contemporary bars. Cultural amenities include the much-loved The Poly theatre and the Phoenix Cinema multi-screen cinema.

The award-winning National Maritime Museum Cornwall is located on the waterfront, reflecting the town's strong maritime heritage. The seafront provides a pleasant, level walk with superb views across the water towards the historic Pendennis Castle and along the peninsula to the west, making this a highly desirable coastal setting for residents and visitors alike.

The accommodation comprises a delightful, dual aspect, light and airy open plan living/kitchen area, two double bedrooms and a modern shower room. Further benefits include UPVC double glazing, gas central heating via a combination boiler, a useful designated lockable storage area for the sole use of the apartment, and the advantage of its own private entrance door.

As our clients sole agents we highly recommend an early appointment to view.
