We are delighted to bring to the market this fantastic double fronted 1930's property which offers the perfect blend of character, space and modern comforts, boasting three generous bedrooms and accommodation that is ideal for families or for those seeking extra room to work from home.

At the heart of the property is a cosy, yet spacious bright lounge having a feature fireplace with inset wood burning stove and a large dual aspect kitchen/diner that creates an impressive social hub offering plenty of space ideal for entertaining with its natural light, enhancing the sense of openness. Bedroom one is located on the ground floor along with the family bathroom/wc. To the first floor, there are two further bedrooms, one having fantastic views.

Outside the property, to the front, there are lawned gardens enclosed by granite walling edged with palm trees and a concrete driveway providing off road parking facilities for several vehicles. To the rear there are well establish gardens that have a substantial decked area and a level lawned area that is surrounded by matures plants and trees. There are also two timber garden sheds that could be used as storage or utilised as a work from home space.

The house retains much character with original flooring, high skirting boards, panelled internal doors and architraves. The property also benefits from gas fired central heating and UPVC double glazing throughout.

The bustling harbourside town of Falmouth is popular with locals and visitors alike and offers many retail and recreational facilities including The Princess Pavilion Gardens and Theatre, The Poly Theatre, The National Maritime Museum and a multi-screen cinema. Throughout the year Falmouth plays host to a number of festivals including The Sea Shanty and Oyster Festivals plus Falmouth Week with its sailing and shoreside events. Falmouth's famous sea front is always a hive of activity with walks around Pendennis Point and along the sea front taking you past Castle and Gyllyngvase Beaches.
